Good Templars There was a large attendance at the meeting of Decatur Lodge of I O G T last night A delegation of 17 Good Templars were all present from l'aithful Lodge Three new members, Thos, Pit-Ler, Lewis Montgomery and Arthur Lyone were initiated. A spelling match was next in order Miss Bertha Spencer and John Spalding did the choosing A Smith, Chief Templar, gave out the words a little while, and then resigned in favor of D L Bunn and took his place among the spellers Tommy Pitner was declared the champion speller. Two initiations and an interesting program was announced for next Tuesday night. An Urbana Man in Luck The day of President Cleveland's visit bana, Ill., was there and went to the Park Theater He got into a dispute with the agent at the ticket box over some change, and the agent called upon Special Officer Kyle to arrest him. Waldron resisted and was brittally clubbed by the officer. Waldron filed suit for $20,000 against Dickson & Talbott, owners of theater and last week the trial was concluded, the plaintiff being awarded $7,000. The court held that the theater managers were responsible for Kyle's acts, and on

A Decatur Lady and Her Views on Truth Telling

A great many people consider that telling th truth would be a very hazardous experiment, and so it would, but felling the other thing is the dangerous. Having tried both ways, I am prepared to prove that statement. I think we should tell 'the truth the whole truth, and nothing but the truth -occasionally and that Always speak the truth as an excellent motte

Petty Slandering of Mr Blaine. Minneapolis Tribune Some of these fresh Washington journalists have been sending forth the tidings that Mr. Blaine has grown curt and unapproachable, and that he snubs people, congressmen not excepted. The country happens to know of Mr Blaine's frank and patient courtesy and his almost unexampled affability. That he can continue to manage the complicated business of the Department. of State, with his impaired health and with the terrible burden of his recent domestic afflictions, is almost beyond be-hef. But neither public business nor personal and family afflictions have sepersonal and family almetions have se-cluded Mr. Blaine friendly intercourse with old and new acquaintances, and that anybody should sieze this particular time to denounce him as offish and inaccessible, seems to be unaccountable on any other theory than that of dull and

and habitual malice

Growing Demand for Electric Motors The uses of the electric motor are multiplying duly and one of the indications that its adaptability is recognized by the public is that machines for both constant potential and constint current systems have been manufactured during the past year at the rate of upward of 250 per week, and their rating will excoed 700 horse power. In spite or this great output of electrical apparatus every portion of it finds in mimedrite sale, and nearly all the factories are be hind in their orders to such an extent that it is nearly impossible to fill orders under sixty days Motors have been in troduced for all concervable purposes to which power can be applied, and small industries run by electrical power have started up in many places where steam power could not have been utilized The use of the storage battery is also growing rapidly -New York Telegram

The political prophets have once more been at fault, and must once more admit that they have again reckoned without their bost. The Republican League convention held at Springfield yesterday, was not in any sense a failure, nor was it a set-up" affair, nor a wat of fighting factions as the Denocratic papers have been the detailed in the papers have been for the papers and the papers and the papers are the papers are the papers and the papers are the papers and the papers are the papers and the papers are the paper vention held at Springfield yesterday, was so fond of prophesying. Defeat may the state, representing hundreds of organized clubs, crowded the magnificent hall of the house of representatives, while hundreds of leading and active Republicans from Charago to Cairo were present to testify of the devotion of Illinoisans to the principles of the glorious party which has controlled the government of the ton, no factional interests interfere with that bond of brotherhood and good felstate for a quarter of a century. The enthusiasm manifested was an earnest of the victory winch is in store for them in November. There was no attempt to "set up" the convention in the interest of may spromeral candidate, nor any apstate for a quarter of a century. The of any supposed candidate, nor any apparent desire upon the part of anyone to "down" anybody. The utmost harmony prevailed, and from anything that emposed out the party was as thoroughly united as it ever was, and just as deter- workers will be led by the Republican respect to win an old fashioned victory as the party ever was at any period of its past existence. The frequent shouts of and spoke as follows: applicase which greeted the various ap-ak-ra gave evidence of the temper of the convertion, and none were more materially to the victory that awaits us bearty or acceptanced than the allu-Sings to Special it and his recent rulings, give z the near the Domocratic claim that he is not in sympathy with the sertiment of las party. The address of President Tracy wis well timed, sensible and well seemed flow Fifer who welcomed the delegates to the capital, made a speech which took the lelegates by storm. A synopsis of the Governor's speech appears in another part of this paper, but no mere synopsis can do justice to the happy periods with which his expellency's speech abounded. It was just such a speech as would capture a convention. The address of Hop John M. Thurston.

of Nebraska, the president of the National League, was such as Republicans n e always delighted to hear, and was hatened to from first to last with the most brentt less attention, punctuated by appliance which frequently was loud and prolonged. Mr. Thurston's effort was too long for our columns, but we make liberal extracts from it. The re-election of the lengue officers which was by acclamation, was a complement, bonestly earned, and their devotion and earnestness was recognized by every delegate. The remaining business was merely formal, and it was appendily transneted. The resolutions were so temperate in tone and so sensible in matter that they must have been a sore di-appoint ment to those Democrats who were so confident of a most sky. The convention

SPEECHES AT THE CONVENTION.

The Coming Republican Campaign in Illinois. We give below portions of the speeches delivered yesterday at the convention of the Illinois Republican League, in session at Springfield. President W. W. Tracy reviewed the history of the organization of the League, permanent our organization. We must mena on the one hand loss of power in Congress, and on the other hand the loss of our state and national ticket in 1892.

The success of an army depends upon the utility of its forces. To be successful it is absolutely necessary that we be thoroughly united. Warned by the misfortunes that have fallen upon our friends to-morrow, shall be a grand and benefit cent advance from yesterday. Then as the Republican party goes marching down the ages accumulating honor and glory with each succeeding administra-tion, the van of enthusiastic and patriotic

Gov. Fifer followed President Tracy

Tius organization represents in measure the Republicanism of Illinois, and it is expected that it will contribute next fall. I need not tell you that the next campaign is an important one and that the opposition are making a deter-inned effort to win but they won't do anything of the kind. Already, in fact, has begin the regular bisonial trumpet-ciowing of the Idinois Democrata, which for nearly forty years has been the cer-tain prelide to their defeat and humila-tion. If there ever was a wild, incoherent, hopeful band on earth, it is these in the cause of southern barourism. British factories and political spoils. Like the historic little bull, they have im-nense courage but small discretion.

These Illinois Democrats have anothe peculiarity, they generally divide out the spoils in advance. They are very nich in political goods and wares six months betaken. The anusement is entirely harmless. If the librois Democrats enjoy playing political liorse before election, by galloping up and down the highways astraddle of a broomstick, I suppose nobody will complain.

The Democratic chickens are always counted and named before it is even known whether the old Jeffersonian hen will take a notion to set or not. When the old bird does conclude to incubate, she does so like the Yank's hen that he and always "not a statem".

These Democrate who are now discounting the fitness of a purely imaginary victory in fitnous next fail, are exactly the same crowd that were ones easting lots for the raiment of Lincoln and Grant and Logan and Yates, and all the noble historic figures of the last because they have so often been beaten on that same issue. They believe they san elect Cleveland in 1892 because they couldn't in 1888. He grew heavier on their hands than the Cardiff Grant and they dropped him in the mud in sheer coming man. Just so they now think they can succeed with my friend General Palmer, because they failed with him in the last campaign. Democrats are like trice; they can be caught in the same trap twice. If the Democratic politicians of this stathard been present when the two thousand swine and the legion of unclean spirits were leaping pell mell into the sea together. I im sure they would have invested than and there in that cargo of pork and I am compelled to say that it would have been an exhibi-coln and Grant and Logan and Yates, will keep forever spotless. We will not dim or blot that record. The Democrats cannot. And to you, the young and vigorous Republicans of our great State, is onsigned the task of preserving our es-cutcheon as free and clear and apotless as it was when bequeathed to us from the august hands of the honored leaders

Site of the World's Fair. The site of the World's Fair in Chicago hus been selected. It comprises 260 acres, and is on the Lake Front, extending from Randolph street south to 12th treet. This space begins above the old Exposition site and extends down past the Authtorium building to 12th street. The Une igo News says Parting the exposition buildings on the lake front will settle the litigation between the state and the Illinois Central road concerning the ripartan rights between Monne and 12th streets, add a great public improvement that would not otherwise be made, and ulgare a hadradervise be made, and abate a hydraheaded musan e created by deadly cross-inge, noisy trans, and snoty smoke-stacks In its outfines the plan provides for widening the Lake Freet park from 500 to 1700 leas immuting the Illinois Con-tral tracks from Randolph to 12th street. This will give the fair management 260 arcs for buildings, promenales, deputs, and the like. The Tilmons Central will be asked to lower its tracks three or four feet- say within a foot or two of the water line. In compensation for this and other expenses the city will probably give the company another 100 feet right of the company another 100 feet right of way. Then it is proposed to fill in Lake Park and the busin of the lake west of the United States dock line. No legal objection can be raised by the government to this occupation of the lake and none will be likely to be presented. The work will result in deep-sing the harbor, a much needed improvement, for it is proposed to oredge the harbor for material to fill the newly inclosed basin.

The ground offered for exposition purposes will be 200 acres. Of this a con-C. B. Prescorr will give you inside siderable portion is proposed to be taken for railway purposes—a grand passenger depot and transfer freight yard. The Everett pianos, Standard organs and ground available for building will exceed 100 acres. The buildings of the Paris exthe entire acreage of inclosed ground was 28 acres. The lake-front grounds will allow ample spice for promenades and park and divers methods of amusement. The legal rights of property-owners will not be infringed if the buildings are only ten porary, and no one is likely to object to the permanent improvement of the park. The management will erect per-manent buildings for an art gallery, a museum, and other purnoses if the prop erty-owners will give their consent. THE trial of Lily Wittington in Justice Curtis' court last evening for slap-

The Drama To-Night. The first production of the realistic drama "A Dark Secret," will be given tonight at the Grand. The stage with its river of water, and arrangement for the rain scene is ready, and there will be marvelous effects. The river scene is not all. To be sure "A Dark Secret" is based upon the well worn bad-man-trying-toget-good-girl's-money plot. There is some very fine acting in the play. It is omere excuse to introduce the aquatic scene, although, of course, that is the chmax. James Norton, a wealthy man, dies, leaving his daughter, Nellie, as his herress. She is not of age. Jonas Norton, brother of James, is made the girl's guardian. He schemes to get her money by inducing her to marry his son, a coarse cockney of a fellow, and failing in that he tries to put her out of the way, and is aided by Emily D'Esterre, a former governess in Junes Norton's family. The characters are all well sustained to the end of the dramatic story. The caste is too large to make individual mention. The drama was given at Peoria Monday and Thesday nights. Said the Jour-nal of last evening: "A Dark Secret" is confessedly one of the finest of melodramas. It packed the opera house last night from orchestra to the last row in the gallery, and every one sat out the play to the end. Unlike most of the meledramas there isn't a weak point in it nor a weak actor. Probably the most thrilling scene that was ever put upon the stage was where May Joyce, personated by Miss Beatrice Lieb, is seized by Stephen Norton, the villain of the play, and thrown into the water. This is the famous tank scene. The tank consists of an enormous reservoir 70 feet long and 25 feet wide, and deep enough

Return of the Decatur Committee from St. Louis.

The Decatur committee on the Union depot movement took a leading part in the fourth act of the commercial-boom drams, and still there is no bloodshed, nor cause for discouragement; but, on the other hand, there is every assurance that in due time, possibly during the summer of the present year, ground will be broken for a substantial depot of striking beauty. The Central has said, through Manager Beck, that the prayer of the Decatur people will be answered; that the plans for the depot-one story-have been prepared, and that the Centra

Decatur committee, by previous arrangement, had a very gratifying interview with General Manager Hays, of the Wabash Railroad Company. The pro-osed Union depot was the topic of conversation, and the subject was considered in all its bearings. The pressing need of and came near ending my existence.

For more than four years I suffered antold agony. I was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an north for nearly a hundred miles, the snow falls every winter. Once in twenty years the snow at the highest altitude falls on the mountains to such a depth as is found there this winter. California has both a winter and a spring climate at the same time. While the mountains have been literally buried in the snow and railway trains have had a hard time in getting through the drifts, and many cattle have perished in altitudes where tures, especially in the valleys, among the mountains, it has actually been spring for 700 miles along the coast, and inland until an altitude exceeding 1,500 feet has been reached, for the last three Improvement The grass in many places is a foot high.

The extremes in interior decoration make the modern home a shining mark for the five fiend, and not least of these defects is the craze for throwing the house into one vast apartment. Huge archways and spacious doorways heavily lung with draperies are attractive and contribute to the comforts of a home, but they are certainly dangerous. The old fashioned door may not look so well, but had the residence of Secretary Tracy been more liberally supplied in this respect it is not at all improbable that the fire would have been confined to the room in which it originated until the inmates were warned of the impending danger. As it was, these large openings acted as would a vast flue, and the flames spread throughout the entire house like a flash.-Washington Post.
